

2017 CONTRIBUTIONS TO IRA, ROTH IRA, SEP, SIMPLE

TAXPAYER			SPOUSE
Plan	Date	Amount	Date	Amount
Traditional IRA
Roth IRA
SEP
Simple

You have until April 17, 2018 to make additional contributions for 2017. Please discuss this possibility with your preparer. Bring all 1099Rs regarding withdrawals, transfers, rollovers and Roth IRA conversions to your interview.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNT WITHDRAWALS – BRING YOUR 1099R

If you withdrew money from your IRA or converted your regular IRA to a Roth during 2017 we also need the value of all retirement accounts as of 12/31/17.

TAXPAYER		SPOUSE
Account Name	December 31, 2017 Value	Account Name	December 31, 2017 Value

When you reach age 70½ you must take a Required Minimum Distributions (RMD) from your retirement accounts. The institution where the investment is held should help you with determining the amount to withdraw. If you need our help with this for withdrawals in 2018 we need your values as of 12/31/17.

ASK YOUR PREPARER ABOUT THE IMPORTANCE OF KNOWING THE BASIS OF YOUR IRA ACCOUNTS

STOCK / MUTUAL FUND / PROPERTY SALES

Provide all 1099B Forms – Proceeds from Broker and Barter Transactions

For sales of Real Estate provide all Settlement Statements (also known as Hud Statements or Closing Statements)

- Provide all information regarding BASIS of the items sold
 - BASIS is your cost if you purchased the item sold
 - BASIS could be the value at the time of death if you inherited property
 - BASIS is the donor's cost if you received the item as a gift

If you are unsure of your stock cost/basis ask your broker for help. If we have to calculate your basis there will be an additional charge.